Dear Harold,

Hope you are feeling reasonably well. With all of the talk of the CIA being exempted from the FOIA, I have drafted a request that I think should be submitted in the near future.

I would certainly appreciate your comments on what should be added or deleted and I welcome you to be a co-signer of the request. My idea is to join several responsible, yet relatively impecunious researchers, to increase our chances for a fee waiver. I am asking Kevin Walsh and Paul

Hope to join you and myself in the request. I am soliciting comments from all on what to include.

The enclosed request is just a draft. However, I hope to move promptly to finalize the request.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best wishes,
Mark
